

Somewhere to Begin

Sara Thomsen

C G Am F C G C

C G Am F
People say to me, oh, you gotta be crazy

C Am G
How can you sing in times like these

C G
Don't you read the news

Am F
Don't you know the score

C
How can you sing
Am G
when so many others grieve

C G
People say to me
Am F C
what kind of fool believes that a song

Am G
will make a difference in the end

C G Am F
By way of a reply, I say a fool such as I

C G F
Who sees a song as somewhere to begin

G Am F
A song is somewhere to begin

C
The search for something

Am G worth believing in

C G
If changes are to come

Am F
there are things that must be done

C G C
And a song is somewhere to begin

C G Am F C C G

C G Am F C G C

G G Am F
People say to me, oh, you gotta be crazy

C Am G
How can you dream in times like these

C G
Don't you read the news

Am F
Don't you know the score

C
How can you dream

Am G
 when so many others grieve
C G
 People say to me
Am F C
 what kind of fool believes that a dream
Am G
 will make a difference in the end
C G Am F
 By way of a reply, I say a fool such as I
C G F
 Who sees a dream as somewhere to begin
G Am F
 A dream is somewhere to begin
C
 The search for something
Am G worth believing in
C G
 If changes are to come
Am F
 there are things that must be done
C G C
 And a dream is somewhere to begin

C G Am F C C G
C G Am F C G C

C G Am F
 People say to me, oh, you gotta be crazy
C Am G
 How can you love in times like these
C G
 Don't you read the news
Am F
 Don't you know the score
C
 How can you love
Am G
 when so many others grieve
C G
 People say to me
Am F C
 what kind of fool believes that love
Am G
 will make a difference in the end
C G Am F
 By way of a reply, I say a fool such as I
C G F
 Who sees love as somewhere to begin
G Am F
 And love is somewhere to begin
C
 The search for something

Am G
worth believing in
C G
If changes are to come
Am F
there are things that must be done

C G
And love is somewhere
Am F
And a dream is somewhere
C G C
And a song is somewhere to begin